

Robyn Lyn Evans

TENOR

Robyn Lyn Evans is from Ceredigion in mid Wales and is a postgraduate of the Royal College of Music, London and graduate of Trinity College Carmarthen and recipient of the Stuart Burrows Bursary.

His singing career started in the Eisteddfod competitions of Wales with highlights including the National Eisteddfod of Wales scholarship, International Young Singer of the Year Llangollen International Eisteddfod, Osborne Roberts Memorial Prize, Lampeter Eisteddfod Blue Riband; runner-up W Towyn Roberts Memorial Scholarship and culminating with the David Ellis Memorial Prize in 2007.

Highlights in recent seasons include Pinkerton Madama Butterfly for West Green House Opera; Cavaradossi Tosca for Opera Project; Lensky Eugene Onegin for Mid Wales Opera; Don Ottavio Don Giovanni and Rodolfo La bohème both for English Touring Opera; and the Duke of Mantua Rigoletto for Opera Project and Longborough Festival Opera.

Opera credits to date include Rodolfo La bohème (English National Opera, Opera Project, Diva Opera); Don José, Carmen, Alfredo La traviata and Macduff Macbeth (Scottish Opera); Ismaele Nabucco, Lord Hervey Anna Bolena (Welsh National Opera); Malcolm Macbeth (Opera North); Pinkerton Madam Butterfly (Raymond Gubbay at the Royal Albert Hall); Rinuccio Gianni Schicchi and Fenton Falstaff (Opera Project); Nemorino L'elisir d'amore; and Alfred Die Fledermaus (Pavilion Opera). He has also performed Gérald Lakmé, Prince Rusalka, Ernesto Don Pasquale, and Ferrando Così fan tutte.

Roles understudied include Alfredo La traviata (English National Opera); Leicester Maria Stuarda (Welsh National Opera); and Tebaldo I Capuleti e i Montecchi (Opera North).

Robyn can be frequently heard on the concert platform with countless performances from the oratorio repertoire and appearances which have taken him to the Royal Albert Hall, Royal Philharmonic Hall Liverpool, Usher Hall Edinburgh, St David's Hall Cardiff, as well as guest soloist with choirs touring Europe.

He is also in demand on radio and television as a performer as well as a vocal commentator for BBC Cymru Television and BBC Radio Cymru, and has released two solo albums entitled ROBYN LYN...tenor and Robyn Lyn Evans Tenor Ah! mes amis.

In the current season Robyn returns to Welsh National Opera as Lord Cecil in Roberto Devereux and will understudy the Duke of Mantua in Rigoletto for Scottish Opera.

Updated September 2018, 2018/19 season
(360 words)